
Terms & conditions

- Artikel 1 During the rental period, the customer will maintain the rental property as a proper tenant, taking care of the backline and not renting it out, using it, or storing it with third parties.
- Artikel 2 The customer is obliged to keep the rental property in good condition. Repairs will be carried out by the rental company, and parts will be provided by the rental company.
- Artikel 3 If repairs or the purchase of parts are necessary due to improper use, the costs will be borne by the customer.
- Artikel 4 The customer is liable for all damage caused to the rental property. In case of disagreement about the extent of the damage, an expert will be appointed by the rental company.
- Artikel 5 If the customer fails to pay the invoice on time, the rental company has the right to consider the rental agreement dissolved, without prejudice to the right to claim costs and damages from the customer.
- Artikel 6 During transport, the rental company is responsible for insuring the rental property. After delivery, the customer is responsible for insuring the rental property.
- Artikel 7 The rental company may require a security deposit from the customer, which will be refunded after the termination of this agreement, provided that all amounts owed by the customer have been paid in full.
- Artikel 8 The agreed rental period may not be changed without the rental company's permission.
- Artikel 9 After the rental period ends, the customer will immediately make the rental property available to the rental company and deliver it to them.